Contents

Preface, by Sauro Gelichi, Mauro Librenti ........................................... 5

Introduction. Constructing Post-Medieval Archaeology in Italy: a New Agenda .... 7
  by Sauro Gelichi

Archaeological Surveys, Excavations, and Landscapes of the Ottoman Imperial Realm: an Agenda for the Archaeology of Modernity for the Middle East ................................................................. 11
  by Uzi Baram

Some Thoughts on Post-Medieval Archaeology, Theory and the Italian Renaissance ........................................... 19
  by Matthew Harry Johnson

The Global and the Local in Modern-World Archaeology ..................... 25
  by Charles E. Orser, Jr.

The Role of Theory in Public Archaeology .................................. 35
  by Mark P. Leone

Post-Medieval Archaeology in Italy:
General Issues and Ten Years of Research (1995-2005) ......................... 41
  by Marco Milanese

Elements for a Landscape Archaeology in the Modern Age .................... 51
  by Mauro Librenti

Specialisation and Fragmentation – Interpretation of Processes in Sheffield’s Metalworking Industries ........................................ 61
  by Joan Unwin

Adventures in a Post-Medieval Landscape: a Rural Case Study from Shapwick, England ......................................................... 75
  by Christopher Gerrard

Identity Marks. Organization of Spaces and Characteristics of Consumption on an Island of the Venetian Lagoon between the Later Middle Ages and the Modern Age ............................................................. 97
  by Sauro Gelichi, Fulvio Baudo, Diego Calaon, Erica D’Amico, Margherita Ferri